

Dr. Galia Glasner-Heled

Personal Information

galia.heled@gmail.com

Positions Held: Academic

2006-present: Lecturer and course developer in Family and Community Studies and Contemporary Jewry Studies, Schechter Institute of Jewish Studies, Jerusalem.

2006-08: Lecturer on Identity and Community, in Psychology and Behavioral Sciences Dep't., Ben Gurion University.

2002-03: Lecturer in Social Psychology, in Psychology and Behavioral Sciences Dep't., Ben Gurion University, and in Human Resources Dep't., Achva College. Ranked high in Ben Gurion University student evaluations of lecturers.

2001-02: Developed seminar on "Textual Analysis as a Tool for Social Understanding," Behavioral Sciences Dep't., Ben Gurion University.

Summers 2001, 2002: Developed and implemented seminar for teaching assistants at the request of Behavioral Sciences Dep't., Ben Gurion University.

1999-2002: Taught course in Social Psychology, Sapir College.

1996-99: Teaching assistant in Social Psychology course, Ben Gurion University.

Positions Held: Non-Academic

1996-2000: Group facilitator in Education Dep't., Union for Citizens' Rights; for police, border police, teachers and prison wardens.

1993-96: Guidance counseling - for pre-army youth, anti-drug organization in Beer-sheva, hiking in Negev.

Summer 1993: Counselor for children in Battered Women's Shelter, Jerusalem.

1990-93: Army service – Education Officer, Artillery.

1989-90: National service volunteer, Scouts, Yeruham.

Education

2005: Post-doctoral work, Dep't of Sociology and Anthropology, Hebrew University, under grant from Ginsburg Foundation.

2005: Ph.D., Hebrew University, on Holocaust Remembrance in Israel as Reflected in Education, Literature and History.

2003-04: Research Fellow with Prof. Elie Weisel, Boston University.

1998: M.A. Honors, Clinical Psychology, Ben Gurion University. Practicum at Mental Health center in Rishon L'zion, and at Psychiatric Hospital in Be'ersheva.

1996: B.A., Honors, Behavioral Science, Ben Gurion University.

Professional Affiliations, Conferences and Awards:

1999-2008: Participation in and initiation of various forums, conferences, steering committees, including presentations at international conferences on Holocaust (detailed list available upon request). Various fellowships and awards for research on Holocaust (detailed list available upon request).

Publications

Glasner-Heled G., (2009), The Obligation to Know and the Right to Not Know (Hebrew), in Masua Journal.

Glasner-Heled G., Bar-On D. (2009). Displaced. The memoir of Eliezer Gruenbaum, Kapo at Birkenau: Translation and Commentary. Shofar: An Interdisciplinary Journal of Jewish Studies, Volume 27, No. 3.

Glasner-Heled, G. (2007). Reader, writer and the Holocaust: the Case of Ka-Tzetnik. To be published in Israel Studies, Vol. 12.3 (Fall 2007).

Glasner-Heled, G. (2008), Murder and Memory, Panim Journal, Vol. 42.

Glasner-Heled, G. (2006), Who Does Tzatnik Represent?, Pages on Holocaust Study, Vol 20, pp. 167-200.

Glasner-Heled, G. (2004), Eliezer Grinbaum – Building the Story of a Kapo in the Collective Memory in Israel of the Holocaust, 2000 Journal, Vol. 27, pp. 111-146.

In Process:

The Tzatnik Myth, dissertation to be published as a book by Ben Gurion University

Article on Alternative Memorial Ceremonies in Israel.

Galia-Heled, G. The Memory of the Holocaust in Israel – A dialogical reinforcement of a Humanistic-Universal Discourse.

Languages: Hebrew and English – fluent.